

LONG MISSING STEAMER REACHED BERMUDA

Message Says All On Board are Safe and Well

Broken Shaft Caused Delay of Two Weeks

HOPE HAD BEEN ABANDONED

Steamer Maracas Three Days Overdue From Trinidad Arrived Today—Another Vessel Missing.

(Bulletin.)
Bermuda, Jan. 11.—The long missing steamer Ponce arrived here today in distress, in tow of the steamer Wabble.

The Ponce is now being towed to Murray's anchorage. A message just flashed to the signal station on shore says that all the passengers and crew are safe. The delay was due to a broken shaft.

New York, Jan. 11.—The steamer Maracas, three days overdue from Trinidad, arrived today. A break on the Maracas' machinery caused the delay.

New York, Jan. 11.—General Manager Mooney of the New York and Porto Rico steamship company, to which the Ponce belongs, received a cablegram from Bermuda this morning which said:

"Ponce off Bermuda in tow of tramp Wabble. (Signed) Darrell." Mooney said that he had no idea who Darrell is except that it is probably a commission house there. No further details were given and Mooney at once cabled to Bermuda for a full report of the vessel's long trip.

The Ponce left Porto Rico for New York on Christmas day and was sighted by the Shenandoah at 11 a. m. on December 28. That was the last seen of the vessel until she was sighted in tow of the tramp Wabble today, putting into Bermuda. When several days had passed after the Ponce was due in New York, the government was enlisted to organize a search for her. Revenue cutters were first dispatched, but returned without having found a trace of her. The battleship Connecticut was added to the fleet of searchers. Both the revenue cutters Mohawk and Onondaga put to sea from Norfolk last night to continue the hunt on which they have been engaged for several days.

The marine department of the Postal Telegraph company suggests that inasmuch as no vessel named the "Wabble" is registered the rescuer of the Ponce is probably the German steamer Wandgard which left Savannah on January 4 for Bremen.

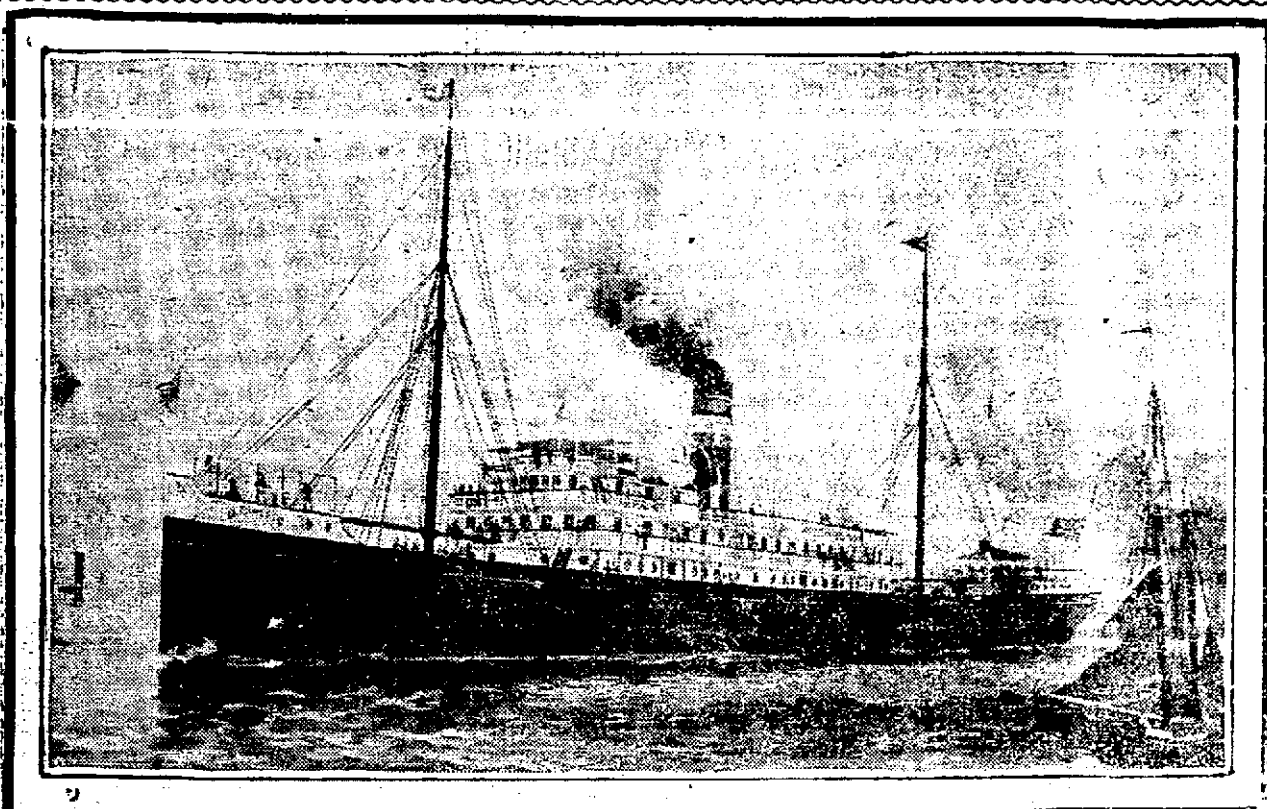

UNKNOWN SHIP

PENNSY STOCK FALLS FOUR POINTS

Bankers and Railway Men Astounded by Announcement That More Money Is Needed.

New York, Jan. 11.—Bankers and railroad men are astounded today over the announcement that the Pennsylvania railroad needs $200,000,000 more to complete its improvements. With the market clogged with securities and the money marts of the world in a money squeeze, the news is stupendous. The capital increase of the Pennsylvania has created wide apprehension. Wall street now realizes that the late President Cassatt is millions short in his estimates of the money required to increase the road's facilities. Attention is called on the floor of the exchange that within six years the capitalization of the Pennsylvania has been increased from $217,000,000 to $800,000,000. The issue of $100,000,000 stock and $100,000,000 bonds dwarfs into insignificance the recent large capital issues of the railroads of the northwest. Within a half hour after the opening, Pennsylvania fell four points.

Decision of Circuit Court in Construing Law Accepted as Final by Officials.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Naturalization authorities in Washington say the question of whether Japanese subjects can become citizens of the United States already has been settled adversely by the circuit courts in the United States, which have declared that, not being either white persons or persons of African nativity, they are not entitled to that privilege. The question, it is said, has never been taken to the supreme court of the States. The decisions of the circuit courts in construing the law on this subject have been accepted by the naturalization officials as final.

J. F. LINGAFELTER CASE HEARD BY CIRCUIT COURT HERE FRIDAY

Judge Dustin Takes Place of Judge McCarty Who is Ill—Arguments Concluded and Court Takes Forgery Case Under Consideration—Decision Later.

The case of John A. Roebing Sons Co. vs. The Shawnee Valley Coal and Iron Co., et al., was argued and submitted to Circuit court Judge Donahue and Taggart Friday morning. Plaintiff sues to enforce the stockholders' liability on subscriptions to stock in the defendant company. The court took the case under advisement.

Charles W. Dustin, a circuit court judge, had been heretofore assigned by the presiding judge of the Circuit courts of Ohio, to come to Newark and sit in the hearing of the case of James F. Lingafelter, plaintiff in error vs. the State of Ohio, defendant in error. Judge Dustin arrived in the city Friday morning, and after the conclusion of the argument in the Roebing Sons case, the court took up the Lingafelter case. The plaintiff in error, James F. Lingafelter, in his petition, alleges a number of assignments of error, the chief ones being that the verdict of the jury, finding him guilty of forgery, is not supported by the evidence; error of the court in refusing to give certain instructions to the jury, which he claims are good law in Ohio and should have been given to the jury, that the court of common pleas erred in its charge to the jury, and error of the court in rulings on impaneling of jury.

Counsel for defendant and for the State concluded their arguments to the court Friday afternoon, and the court took the case under consideration. Before a decision is reached it will be necessary for the court to go through the bill of exceptions, and the written briefs of counsel, after which it will announce its decision. Lingafelter was convicted in Common Pleas court of forgery and was sentenced to four years' imprisonment.

Some time before January 21, the date set for the trial, his counsel will ask for the appointment of a commission to test the present sanity of the young Pittsburger. This is the positive opinion of officials of the district attorney's office. In accordance with his belief the prosecution has notified its insanity experts to make no engagements that might conflict with their possible appearance before a sanity commission.

FIRST VOICE IN SMOOT'S DEFENSE RAISED TODAY

HOPKINS OF ILLINOIS SAYS THE UTAH SENATOR SHOULD RETAIN SEAT.

REFERRING TO THE CHURCH

Speaker Says It Is Undergoing Radical Changes for Better—Issue With Burrows.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The first voice raised in the Senate in defense of Reed Smoot's right to retain his seat as a senator from Utah is that of Senator Hopkins of Illinois. In a speech today Mr. Hopkins declared that the Mormon church is undergoing a radical change for the better. "Reed Smoot is an Apostle of this higher and better Mormonism," said Mr. Hopkins. "He stands for sacred things in the church and is against polygamy and all kindred vices connected with that loathsome practice."

Discussing the statement that Utah and its legislature are under domination of Mormon hierarchy, Mr. Hopkins expressed surprise that a man of Senator Burrows' intelligence should submit a proposition of that character as a reason for depriving Mr. Smoot of his seat.

"If that principle were to prevail," he said, "it would vacate nearly every seat in this body. Is it any worse for members of a religious organization to prefer one of their number as a United States senator than for a political organization in the state of Michigan to prefer the senior senator of Michigan as their representative?"

Discussing the constitutional questions involved Mr. Hopkins said that Congress could not add any qualifications other than those prescribed by the constitution.

Chicago, Jan. 9.—Mrs. Potter Palmer says she is not a socialist, and her action in turning over her home to the National Federation for the night of January 12 was due to a request made by Franklin MacVeagh and Cyrus McCormick.

CONFESSION IS SIGNED BY SMITH AT JACKSON, KY.

PRISONER IMPLICATES HARGISES AND EX-SHERIFF IN DR. COX MURDER.

SMITH IS UNDER INDICTMENT

Not Only for Cox Killing But For Assassination of J. B. Marcum Also.

(Bulletin.)
Jackson, Ky., Jan. 11.—John Smith charged with the assassination of Dr. B. D. Cox in the Breathitt county feud has confessed his part in the crime and has implicated the Hargises and ex-Sheriff Ed Callaghan. The confession was written by Smith himself and his attorney Jouett has the original copy signed in the presence of Byrd and Jouett, the commonwealth attorneys and Smith's attorney. Smith is also under indictment for the murder of J. B. Marcum. Smith says at the instigation of the Hargises and Callaghan, he, Abner and Spicer fired the shots that killed Dr. Cox.

After telling in detail the alleged arrangements for the murder of Cox, Smith tells of the shooting as follows:

"We told them we were afraid to shoot unless we were certain it was the right man. So Judge Hargis and Callaghan put us three, Spicer, Abner and myself under the barn shed and sent Elbert Hargis to stand on the corner opposite the Cardwell corner, and when Dr. Cox left his office and started home and got about opposite where we were hiding, Elbert Hargis was to call to him, so that we would know it was Cox. Ed Callaghan came and stayed with us until about 20 minutes before Cox was killed and told us to be sure and not miss him. When Dr. Cox left his office and came down just across the street from us Elbert Hargis called to him and said, 'Is that you, Doc?' and he said 'Yes,' and stopped. All three of us fired at the same time or so near the same that it was all one report. As soon as we fired I ran to the other end of the shed and Spicer and Abner fired two more shots which made five shots that were fired, but only three reports. I ran down to the back of Judge Hargis' house and waited until Spicer, Abner and Elbert Hargis came to where I was. In a short time Judge Hargis said, 'By God, you sure got him, for I heard him holler like a big bull.'"

LOADED COAL CARS DASHED DOWN HILL

Hazleton, Pa., Jan. 11.—Dashing wildly down the steep Weatherly hill beyond control of the engineer, 18 loaded coal cars crashed into an empty coal train at Black Creek Junction early today. Engineer Harry Harig of the runaway train was killed and Fireman Dooney was injured. When the crash came the impact threw the cars high in the air, and tumbled thousands of tons of coal out on the mountain. The wreckage blocked both tracks. Two years ago a wreck occurred at the same place and three trainmen were killed.

MORE ARRESTS ARE TO FOLLOW

New York, Jan. 11.—More arrests may be made in connection with the investigation of the affairs of the New York Life Insurance company, according to an announcement made by District Attorney Jerome. The announcement was made while the district attorney was opposing an application of counsel for George W. Perkins, now under indictment in the New York Life case, for an inspection of the entire minutes of the December grand jury. Mr. Jerome said that it would be in defiance of public policy to grant such a request, as there are persons mentioned in the evidence who have not yet been arrested, but who may be at some future time. No decision was reached in the matter, the court directing counsel for both sides to submit briefs in duplication of the verbal arguments.

ORNSDORF SAID HE WAS DETECTIVE

AND WHILE IN THIS ROLE HE STRIPPED ENGINE OF ITS BRASS TRIMMINGS.

Drew Heavy Fine and Jail Sentence Which Will Keep Him Locked Up Until April.

By impersonating a railroad detective M. A. Ornsdorf, an East Newark man, succeeded in stripping the engine of a steam shovel of all its brass work. However, he feared detection and threw a large bar containing his booty into the creek where it was later rescued by the railroad officers whom he was impersonating.

The shovel was standing on a side track near the B. & O. shops and Ornsdorf was removing the brass trimmings when he was discovered by a number of small boys. He told them that he was a railroad detective and was removing the brass to keep it out of the hands of thieves.

The boys did not believe his story and went to Chief Bennett of the B. & O. police where they reported the matter. An investigation was made by Officer F. K. Roberts and an affidavit charging Ornsdorf with the theft was filed by Roberts.

When Ornsdorf was arraigned in inevitable he threw the sack containing the brass into the creek where it was found by Officer Roberts.

When Ornsdorf was arraigned in Mayor McCleery's court he pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs and sentenced to the county jail for 30 days. This will keep the man in the county jail for 86 days, or until April 7, 1907.

DAY'S BUSINESS IN COURT HOUSE

Court in Mt. Vernon.

Judge Charles W. Seward went to Mt. Vernon Friday morning and convened court at 9 o'clock to receive the report of the grand jury. An assignment of cases was also made for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

Amended Answer.

In the case of Mabel Tarr vs. Addison C. Dickinson, suit for damages for injuries sustained while working for the defendant, while he was proprietor of the American Tribune printing office in this city, the defendant has filed his amended answer. Defendant claims that the injury to plaintiff's hand was caused solely by her own carelessness and negligence. He denies that plaintiff is entitled to any damage by reason of the injury complained of and asks to be discharged from the action with his costs. Norpell & Norpell, attorneys for defendant.

Answer and Reply.

In the case of Oliver E. Wells vs. The Supreme Council of the Royal Arcanum, and others, Oliver E. Wells has filed her answer to the amended answer and cross petition of Albert A. Stasel, receiver of the Newark Savings Bank company. She says that it is not true that upon proof of the death of Thomas B. Holmes she became due to James H. Richardson, by reason of the benefit certificate, or otherwise, from the Royal Arcanum $3,000; that it is not true that either through Richardson or otherwise, there became due the Newark Savings bank $1025 or any other sum or interest in the same; that it is not true that J. H. Richardson was the uncle of Thomas B. Holmes except that he was the uncle of Holmes by marriage; that it is not true that J. H. Richardson was the uncle of T. B. Holmes within the meaning of the bylaws of the Royal Arcanum, or the commonwealth of Massachusetts.

That it is not true that James H. Richardson was designated as beneficiary in the benefit certificate in good faith with the understanding that Richardson was the uncle of Holmes by marriage and not by blood.

That it is not true that the Royal Arcanum accepted the dues paid by Richardson with knowledge of the facts or circumstances of the contract; that it is not true that Richardson was accepted by the Royal Arcanum as such beneficiary; that it is not true that the Royal Arcanum is not confounding the payment of $3,000; that it is not true that T. B. Holmes and Richardson in the life time of both, conducted themselves toward each other as relatives and members of the same family, other than that they were related by marriage.

Plaintiff admits that Richardson paid the premiums or dues for Holmes' membership in the order, but says that the payments did not amount in the aggregate to more than $152.39.

Plaintiff says that the payments of dues were not accepted by the order from Richardson as beneficiary of the certificate; that by the laws of the Royal Arcanum the benefit certificates are not assignable; that during the time of membership of Holmes and up to the present time, the laws of the Royal Arcanum contained the following provision:

Mr. Goldsmith said that new convicts were being employed in violation of the law, and announced that the federation would bring proceedings in the case of each separate convict received since last March to prevent his employment.

BUFFALO SCARCE

New York, Jan. 11.—Plans for the propagation of the American buffalo were discussed at a meeting of the American Bison society. It was stated that there are now about 2,000 buffaloes in North America, of which 1,400 are in the United States, and that in view of the rapidity with which the animals have decreased in recent years it was argued that they will soon become extinct unless effectual steps are taken to foster them. The society decided that it would make an effort by securing sufficient funds from individuals to purchase practically all of the remaining buffaloes both in this country and Canada, and present them to the United States government.

VIOLATION OF CONVICT LABOR LAW ALLEGED BY SEC. GOLDSMITH.

Three Cent Fares—Plumbers Indicted—Traction Insurance—Mine Workers—Five Fines.

Columbus, O., Jan. 11.—Secretary Goldsmith of the Ohio Federation of Labor, of Cleveland, appeared before the warden and board of managers of the Ohio penitentiary and complained that the new Wertz law regulating the employment of convict labor, which went into effect on March 3 last, is being violated both in letter and spirit. The prison officials denied that such was the case. A difference of opinion was developed as to the construction of the law. The company presented an offer to continue to operate these lines to make all fares, whether cash or tickets, on a 3-cent basis from now till the advertisement and sale of the new franchises. The offer also provides that if the receipts of the company show any surplus after operating such excess will go to the city.

Ashtabula Plumbers Indicted.

Ashtabula, O., Jan. 11.—The members of the Ashtabula Master Plumbers' association, otherwise known as the plumbers' trust, were indicted by the grand jury at Jefferson for alleged violation of the anti-trust laws in maintaining an organization in restraint of trade. Paine and Herbert R. Burke. Burke is the city plumbing inspector. Smith is the secretary of the association.

New Assault on Beal Act.

Columbus, O., Jan. 11.—A new attack on the constitutionality of the Beal municipal local option law was made in the supreme court by ex-Representative Dudley P. Wayne of Cincinnati, representing saloonists just outside of Hartwell, arrested for violating the Sunday closing law. The point raised is that either the Beal law is unconstitutional or there is no Sunday closing law applying to the territory outside of municipalities. The Beal law repeals the old Owen Sunday closing law, but its first section attempts to re-enact the Sunday law. A later section provides that all fines imposed under the Beal act shall go to the municipality where collected. On this Wayne turns his point.

United Mine Workers.

Columbus, O., Jan. 11.—Dr. E. B. Harper, representative from Summit county and chairman of the house committee on mines and mining, addressed the Ohio Mine Workers' convention. He said the legislative measures urged by the miners were generally fair and he was glad to support them. The convention adopted a motion declaring that it could not under any circumstances invite State Senator Pollock to the convention to explain his alleged opposition to mining interests at the last session of the legislature.

Henri Run Down.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 11.—A telegram was received by Chief of Police Miliken from Washington, D. C., saying that Clarence Henri, the Englishman indicted for the theft of "The Girl Knitting" picture from the Cincinnati Art museum, and who was one of nine men who escaped from the Hamilton county jail Dec. 23, is under arrest in Washington. There is but one of the nine men who escaped still at large, John Southgate, alias Sutton.

Refused Reinstatement.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 11.—Chairman Herrmann of the national baseball commission stated that the petition of Player James Sebring for reinstatement to good standing in baseball will be refused. "That means that Sebring will not be able to play with an organized baseball team outside of the Tri-state league of Pennsylvania," said Mr. Herrmann. Sebring is under contract to the Chicago National league club for the next two years.

Iron Furnace Men's Request.

Columbus, O., Jan. 11.—The state railroad commission met to consider the complaint of the Ohio Shippers' association against the demurrage system. The iron furnace men asked to be made parties to the case that their grievances might be heard, and the commission decided to grant their request and set Feb. 26 as the date for a further hearing.

DIGESTION DECIDES IT.

Good Digestion More Than Half the Battle.

Life is a ceaseless struggle for success because success is supposed to insure happiness.

Ambition and ability make for success, but without health too, failure is more than probable.

If the digestion is poor, the nerves unsteady, the blood thin, the weight less than it should be, and ambition and energy at low tide because of stomach trouble, failure is almost a certainty.

Whether you make much or little of life, whether you fail or succeed, your digestion largely decides it. So confident are W. A. Erman & Son that Pepsikola Tablets will renew your energy, drive away that tired feeling, give tone to the digestion, improve your appetite, bring up your weight to where it should be, put new color into your cheeks and new life into your stomach, that they continue to sell this grand dyspepsia remedy on the money-back plan.

Have confidence. The guarantee absolutely protects you. Erman & Son will gladly pay you back your quarter if at the end of the ten days' treatment you have not been cured or decidedly benefited.

RUBER TRIED TO SHOOT UP SALOON

BOASTED THAT EIGHT DAYTON COPS COULDN'T PLACE HIM UNDER ARREST.

Two Newark Officers Found No Trouble in Taking Him to Jail—Was Fined $30 and Costs.

Sam Ruber, who claims to be a veritable terrorist in his native village, Dayton, found himself up against a rut in his "stream of life," Thursday night when he proceeded to do things in Priest's saloon on the South Side, which were not on the saloon's calendar of legitimate amusements.

Ruber rolled into the place like an angry bellow about 7 o'clock. He was drunk, very drunk in fact, and that is why he rolled in. He ordered his whistle tickled but the dispenser of the suds used the barometer on Sam and found his anatomy already too damp and therefore refused his demand for more booze. It was evident that Sam was trying to corner the booze market and the bar tender was trying to break the combination. Samuel grew obstreperous and threatened to shoot. His gun was taken away from him and he was ejected from the place. He soon returned and then the cops came in and the man who boasted that it took six Dayton cops to arrest him, was taken to the police station by two of Newark's light weights, Officers Swank and Howard. He resisted some, but not enough to inconvenience the officers.

In police court this morning he faced five charges, drunk, fighting, carrying concealed weapons, discharging firearms and resisting officers. He was found guilty on three charges and fined $30 and costs and sentenced to the county jail until the fine was paid. The jail sentence was suspended during Ruber's good behavior.

Attacked by Strikers.

Fougères, France, Jan. 11.—Because of a renewal of violence on the part of the striking shoeworkers and the limited number of men returning to work, the proprietors have closed the few factories that were reopened. Two hundred men who were ready to go to work were assailed by large crowds of strikers as they entered and left the factories. Sticks and stones and many other missiles were hurled at the men who wanted to resume, and strong escorts of gendarmes had to be detailed for their protection.

The Savings Habit

At this time of the year many people are making resolutions of various kinds. Some may resolve to try and do better or to try and break off a bad habit.

These are fine resolutions, but there is one equally as good—to resolve that a portion of every week's or month's salary be placed in a Savings Account and SAVED.

By this means money can be made to last longer and do better service than in any other way. TRY IT.

THE cocoa bean in its natural state contains too much cocoa-butter. When this butter is entirely eliminated, the maker has cheapened his product, and given you something which has only taste, but which is absolutely of no food value.

When too much of the butter has been left in the cocoa, it is too rich for the average person, and is not really digested. There is in an exactly proper proportion of this nutritious element, just enough to "bind" the powdered bean, to give character to the flavor—lend richness to the aroma, and to give the body that nutrition which is essential to a food drink. No other cocoa is so good. For 35 years the standard of purity and excellence.

INSTITUTE HELD BY UTICA FARMERS

OWING TO POOR ROADS THIS YEARS ATTENDANCE NOT LARGE AS USUAL.

Levi Knowlton Re-elected President of Organization—Good Program Was Carried Out.

The annual Farmers' Institute closed Thursday at Utica with an excellent program. The attendance this year was not quite so large as in former years, owing, it was said, to the very bad condition of the roads. They are reported as being the worst in many places in the history of Licking county.

S. W. Williams of Lima township, could not be present but sent his essay on "Experience With the King Method of Working Roads," which was an able paper and was read by the president, Mr. Levi Knowlton.

Mr. Keller of Newark, was also unavoidably kept at home, but his paper was also read by the president. His subject was "Crop Rotation," and it was decided to have it published in some of the agricultural papers. J. S. Adams of Utica, gave a very witty and interesting talk on "Value of Weeds." Rev. J. L. Wyle of Granville gave one of the best talks of the institute on "Good Roads." He advocated the King method of working roads and emphasized the importance of working them in the spring of the year or early summer. He spoke of the necessity of good drainage and other matters in road building which adhered to by the supervisors and commissioners would give us far better roads than we now have without any additional expense. He spoke of the vast amount of money being expended upon the roads without any material results.

The foreign instructors were Alva Agoe of the National Stockman, Dairy and Food Commissioner-elect Dunlap, and Prof. Ramsower of the O. S. U. of Columbus. They thoroughly discussed such subjects as "Use of Lime," "Commercial Fertilizer," "Making of Sod," etc., which were instructive and helpful to the farmers. Such institutes should be held in different parts of Licking county.

One successful and striking feature of the occasion was the catering of the women of the Church of Christ to the natural appetite of the attendants. Fourteen chickens were slaughtered, and one lady, Mrs. McFadden, cooked 332 biscuits, and the tables were loaded down with everything else in proportion. The ladies netted $27.75. Mr. C. C. Hughes seemed to be general manager of this part of the program.

The Newark and Granville contingents, W. L. Prout, O. C. Larson, J. Y. Wyle, Captain J. M. Scott and others are loud in praise of the feast and express themselves as going again next year and taking in the institute as a side issue.

The managers decided to change the arrangement of the program next year, to have a few lady instructors, and add some music. Such old wheel horses as Lea A. Bell, J. H. Kirkpatrick, J. S. Adams, George Kirkpatrick, Benson Hull, Cameron Silson, Hervey, Fravel, Reynolds, Weaver and others are determined to make this one of the best institutes in the state. Mr. Levi Knowlton was re-elected president.

DEATH LIST GROWS DOZEN BODIES FOUND AND SCORE MISSING

Pittsburg, Jan. 11.—Partial investigation to ascertain the number of fatalities that occurred at the Eliza Furnaces of the Jones & Laughlin Steel company when an accumulation of gas exploded, bursting the base of the large furnaces and showering tons of molten metal over about 40 men, was completed, and shows that the bodies of 12 men horribly mutilated have been recovered; from 15 to 20 men are missing, it being generally believed their bodies were consumed by the hot metal, and 10 men are in hospitals terribly burned, four of whom are expected to die momentarily. It is doubtful whether the number of men killed will be ever known. From present indications over 15 men were caught like rats in a trap by the metal, which flowed over their bodies to a depth of six feet. No traces of them, it is said, will ever be found.

Cut Off Mother-in-Law's Head.
Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 11.—George C. Wapp killed Mrs. Fredericka Freund, his mother-in-law, by cutting off her head with a razor. The body was not found until Wapp volunteered to search for the missing woman. He confessed the crime to the police. He was recently released from an insane asylum.

BADGER GAME PLAYED ON TEXAS OFFICER

New York, Jan. 11.—Chief of Police George Ellis, of Houston, Texas, had two young women in the tenderloin police court today on a badger game charge.

Chief Ellis told the court that he thought a little local inspection might aid him in maintaining the law and developing police efficiency in Houston. Accordingly he set sail last night upon Broadway where the tides of night surge. Ellis was steering a course north by west, taking his bearing by certain white lights which glimmer over rathskellers and chit cures.

Off Broadway and Thirty-fourth street, the lonely chief was halted by two young lady voyagers. Ellis was not disabled but took a tow and when off Forty-second street, suddenly discovered that the ship's locker had been opened and seventy Texas dollars were missing. Chief Ellis sent up a signal of distress and a cop put out from the east shore of Broadway.

"They do things different in Texas," Ellis told the court today.

Jan. 11 In History.

1787—General Alexander Hamilton, American soldier and statesman, secretary of the treasury under Washington, born in Nevis, West Indies; killed by Aaron Burr in a duel July 12, 1804. Hamilton's career was romantic from beginning to end. It was by adoption that he became a citizen of the country he served with distinction. His father was a Scottish merchant located in the West Indies. At 15 the boy was sent to New York to enter King's college to prosecute studies for which he showed a strong inclination. After two years spent in military studies he entered the army as captain of artillery. He served five years in active campaigns.
1835—Edward Taylor, American author and traveler, born at Kennett Square, Pa.; died in Berlin 1875.
1896—General Francis Channing Barlow, a noted veteran of the Army of the Potomac and a prominent lawyer, died in New York city; born 1824.
1906—Horace B. Scudder, noted American author, died at Cambridge, Mass.; born 1838.

The Proper Solution.

The City Council seems to be in the throes of tribulation over a complication pertaining to the salaries of the members of the Board of Public Safety. In consequence of technical conditions of the law and the city ordinances one of the members of the Board is receiving a salary of $300 a year, while the other member is receiving only $150 a year. The Council seems to be disturbed over this injustice but can find no way of effecting a remedy by a process of equalization of the compensation of the two members of the Board. There is certainly a way to remedy the difficulty however, though it may not have been thought of by the Council or the other parties concerned. If the member of the Board drawing the $300 salary, in a proper sense of appreciation of the conditions and the justice of the situation, would refuse to receive more money for the same service than is paid to his fellow member, there would be a splendid solution of the whole difficulty.

All on Account of the Color of the Soldiers.

There are two questions involved in the proposed congressional investigation of the action of President Roosevelt in directing the dismissal of the negro troops at Brownsville without honor. One of these relates to his power to take such summary action as commander in chief of the military and naval forces of the country. Senator Foraker challenges the right of the President to exercise such power. He admits, however, that he may be mistaken in this and that those who hold, like Senator Lodge and others, that such power is lodged in the President, may be correct. But he contends if this be the case then there is the other question to be considered, whether the President was justified in using the power in the manner he did. The congressional inquiry will be such as to deal with both of these questions. So far the debates in both the Senate and House have settled pretty clearly that all this fuss has been raised over the dismissal of these troops simply because they are negroes. If they had been white soldiers and had committed the very same offense, their dismissal would have been justified without any thought of a congressional inquiry. The whole contention is on account of the color of the soldiers.

New Mexico's citizens have by no means given up the hope of statehood in the near future. They have chosen a constitutional convention, which is now in session and which will draft a constitution to submit to Congress with a plea for immediate admission to statehood. The decision of the voters against joining New Mexico with Arizona as one state is expected to have considerable influence with the Nation's law makers. However, there is no prospect of this session of Congress doing anything in the matter. It will no doubt come up in the next Congress. By that time Oklahoma will have been admitted as a state, and it is possible her senators and representatives may be disposed to help Mexico. In this connection there is some interesting speculation as to whether Oklahoma will send an Indian to the Senate. The names of several Indians who are said to be well qualified for the position are mentioned.

NOTHING DOING

At Thursday Night's Meeting of City Council—Too Early to Take Any Action.

A special meeting of the City Council was called for Thursday evening to rectify the blunder made by that body Monday night when it failed to make the proper appropriation for the Board of Safety salary fund. It was proposed Thursday night to pass a new ordinance making the corrections in the Board of Safety fund and other changes asked by Mayor McCleery. However, at 5 o'clock, or shortly afterwards, the members of the finance committee and the mayor and the solicitor and others made the startling discovery that they could take no action on the ordinance until ten days have passed, because Mayor McCleery vetoed the measure and returned it to the council.

There were several items in the measure which came under the head of the mayor's fund and numerous other heads and the committee failed to appropriate enough money to these various funds. That was the reason of his veto.

When Clerk Munch called the meeting to order, all members but Messrs. Conrad and Beadle were present. The mayor's communication was read and upon motion was received and filed.

This was the extent of the meeting and the president rapped for adjournment.

GOVERNOR HARRIS FILLS VACANCY ON COMMON PLEAS BENCH.

His Choice Not an Applicant—John F. Kumlner of Toledo, is Appointed.

Toledo, O., Jan. 11.—John F. Kumlner of Toledo was appointed by Governor Harris to fill the vacancy on the common pleas bench in Lucas county caused by the resignation of Judge Tyler. Mr. Kumlner was formerly revenue collector here. He was not an applicant for the place, it is said, and his appointment was a surprise to the politicians who have been urging the claims of the various candidates. When it was announced that Judge Tyler had made up his mind to leave the bench there began an animated contest, and the candidates were numerous. Judge Kumlner was one of the comparatively few members of the bar here who was not a candidate. When Governor Harris made a tentative offer of the appointment to him he said he did not want it, and it was only after some persuasion that he agreed to accept the place.

"You are so popular," sighs the swain. "You have so many suitors." "The ideal," smiles the lady young thing. "Why, I can count them all on the fingers of my left hand." "So?" The index finger is Mr. Smilgorth, the second finger is Mr. Balder, and the third finger—the third finger of my left hand—the third finger is you." Next day he got the ring for it—Chicago Evening Post.

FIXES HOURS OF TRAINMEN

Railway Employees Bill Passes the United States Senate.

ONE NEGATIVE VOTE CAST

No More Than Sixteen Consecutive Hours of Work, to Be Followed by Ten Hours Off Duty—Clash Between Representatives Narrowly Averted in the House.

Washington, Jan. 11.—By a vote of 70 to 1 the senate passed the measure providing that railway employees who are engaged in the handling of trains shall not work more than 16 consecutive hours, which period is to be followed by 10 hours off duty. The one negative vote cast was by Senator Pettus. The bill which was finally passed was a substitute offered by Senator La Follette, and not in print. It was amended in several respects by the senate. The bill provides that under certain contingencies and in case of accident the time fixed may be exceeded. The enforcement of the law is placed in the hands of the interstate commerce commission and the federal courts, the penalty provided being a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000. The act is to apply to trains doing an interstate or foreign commerce business.

Senator Tillman gave notice he would address the senate Saturday on the Brownsville affair, and Senator Foraker announced he would endeavor to get a vote on the investigation resolution on that day.

Representatives Mahon (Pa.) and Gaines (Penn.) were only prevented by efforts of friends from meeting in a personal encounter on the floor of the house. Mr. Gaines was making a speech on his so-called docking bill to dock members for absence from the floor of the house, when he made the charge that Mr. Mahon was absent from the floor 95 per cent of the time. Mr. Mahon, as soon as he could be recognized, stated that any man who made that statement was speaking an untruth. Mr. Gaines rushed down the aisle toward Mr. Mahon and was grabbed in front of the speaker's desk by Mr. James of Kentucky and others who pulled him back into his seat. Everything was in confusion, the chairman of the committee of the whole, Mr. Mann, pounding his gavel so hard that the head flew off on the floor. Until order was restored Mr. Mahon continued his charge that the representation of Mr. Gaines was absolutely untrue. Later Messrs. Gaines and Mahon shook hands, thus closing the incident.

VERDICT

In the So-Called Tobacco Trust Trial. Individuals Acquitted.

New York, Jan. 11.—A jury in the United States circuit court returned a verdict in the so-called "tobacco trust" trial. The jury acquitted Carl Jungbluth and Howard E. Young on all the counts charging conspiracy in restraint of trade and combining to control the licorice paste industry, but finds the MacAndrews & Forbes company and the J. S. Young company guilty on two counts, one of forming an illegal combination and the other of being a monopoly. The corporations named, which were joint defendants with Jungbluth and Young, were acquitted of the charge of conspiracy. Counsel for the defendant companies at once moved for an arrest of judgment, and Judge Hough will hear arguments on the motion next Monday.

ANOTHER SPECIAL ELECTION ON WATER WORKS IS HINTED

Mayor McCleery Suggests the Probability in a Short Address to the City Council.

It is not improbable that the citizens of Newark will get another opportunity, about July 1, to vote on a proposition to issue $280,000 in water works bonds for the present Board of Public Service to spend on the municipal water plant. Mayor McCleery hinted at such a thing in his address to the City Council on Thursday night.

After the mayor's communication asking for corrections in the appropriation ordinance, had been read, his honor addressed the body for five minutes. Among the funds he mentioned for which the first appropriation of the finance committee was said to be insufficient, was the fund for the Board of Elections. Mayor McCleery said:

"If there should happen to be a water works election alone about the first of July this year, the money appropriated in the first ordinance will not be enough. There is considerable expense attached to the handling of ballots to the election places and then taking them back again. There remains a small balance from the December election which is unpaid and this fund should not be neglected. If we held another election we will need the money."

HARGIS TRIAL IS POSTPONED

Writ of Prohibition Issued by the Court of Appeals.

CHARGES AGAINST THE JUDGE

Alleged He is Conducting the Case in an Arbitrary Manner and is Overstepping the Bounds of Law—Excitement Subsides at Jackson. Prosecution Elated.

Jackson, Ky., Jan. 11.—The trial of Judge James Hargis on the charge of participating in the assassination of Dr. D. B. Cox in this city, three years ago, was suddenly postponed here as the result of a writ of prohibition issued by the court of appeals of Kentucky.

The writ was granted upon the application of Attorney General N. B. Hays and James B. Adams, commonwealth's attorney for the Second judicial district. The petitioners allege that Special Judge William Carnes of Williamstown, who was appointed by Governor Beckham to try the case of Judge Hargis and others charged with the assassination of Dr. Cox, is conducting the trial in an arbitrary manner and is overstepping the bounds of the law.

The principal objection to Judge Carnes was his ruling that temporarily suspended Sheriff Brock Crawford and the naming of Robin Burton as elisor. The petitioners allege that Judge Carnes has directed the elisor to summon bystanders for the jury, which is in violation of a statute passed at the last session of the legislature.

The writ of prohibition has wrought a great change in the feeling of the people of this city. Judge Carnes said that he thought the writ could be dismissed on a demurrer, which he would file when he reached Frankfort. The excitement has subsided and the town is almost deserted.

Judge Hargis appears to be bewildered by the writ. It is the hardest blow that has come to him in any of his trials, and the prosecution is much elated.

Judge Carnes had wired Governor Beckham asking that 50 soldiers be sent to guard him against assassination, as his life is in danger. Civil authorities, he says, are powerless to protect him. The little city, which has been the scene of much turbulence and bloodshed in the past few years, is intensely excited over a condition bordering on a reign of terror. It is a result of the same cause which brought about all previous trouble—the feud between the Hargis faction and their opponents. The jury in the case has not been selected, as it has been found impossible to secure 12 men from Breathitt county who are not afraid to pass judgment on their fellow townsman and most powerful citizen. The people of Jackson want the trial removed from Jackson as far as possible.

In Mayor Bricker's court at Utica, he was a slight stroke of paralysis. The

LUCK AGAINST NEWARK BOWLERS

PINS BROKE BADLY IN SECOND SERIES OF CONTEST WITH ZANESVILLE TEAM.

Lost on Total Pins by 25 But Won Second Series of Contest by 113. Pins—Big Crowd.

The ten pin hoodoo which has been dogging the footsteps of Noel Armstrong and Dan Baker the two local crack ten pin artists for the past three weeks, was with them again last night when they rolled the final series in the contest with Zanesville.

The five games were rolled on the Music hall alleys and although the Newark bunch rolled the best all round ten pins in these five games, they could not overcome the handicap of their opponents and lost the series by 25 pins. While losing the series, they won the five games by 113 pins.

After the second game was finished, Newark had overcome the handicap, and were 26 pins to the good. The third game put Zanesville 43 pins to the good. The third game put Zanesville 43 pins to the good. In the fourth one, Newark beat her opponents by 42 pins thus giving them ahead of one pin still.

The fifth game looked like a sure winner for Newark, and in the last frame both Baker and Armstrong drew a wide open split which knocked their chances in to cocked hat.

On the total pins in this game, Newark won by 113, but Zanesville still had their lead of 138 pins which gave them a margin in the ten games of 25 pins.

The crowd at the opening of the game was so dense that it was difficult for the men to roll. They gave Armstrong and Baker their support in rooting, but this was not enough to help Newark to win. The score: Zanesville—Tot. Wurstler [144] [126] [243] [159] [181] 833. Richards [150] [148] [158] [174] [190] 820. [294] [274] [401] [333] [371] 1573. Tot. [879] [873] [332] [375] [327] 1786. SLEEVE CAUGHT IN TEETH OF SAW

ANDREW BILLMAN BADLY IN-JURED AT MORGAN MILL NEAR GRANVILLE.

Doctors Who Attended Mr. Billman
Consider His Injuries to Be Very Serious.

Granville, O., Jan. 11.—Mr. Andrew Billman, a well known young man aged about twenty years, employed by Mr. William Morgan, in his saw mill on the old Columbus road, three miles west of this place, was the victim of a terrible accident on Thursday afternoon. He was engaged in sawing timber when in some manner the sleeve of his coat was caught by the teeth of the large circular saw, and in an instant he was drawn against it, and before the saw could be stopped one of his arms and his leg was taken to the home of Mr. Billman and Dr. Leatherman was summoned and attended to the man's injuries, which are considered of a very serious nature.

7,000 LIVES LOST $500,000,000 DAMAGE "RED PLAGUE" RECORD

Nearly 7,000 lives lost and more than $500,000,000 worth of property destroyed—this is the havoc that marks last year's part of the "red plague" from San Francisco to New York. Every day of the year just ended, on the average, twenty lives and nearly $1,500,000 were sacrificed upon the altar of the fire god. Nowhere else in the world is the fire loss in bulk or pro rata anywhere near ours. The average loss is now $200,000,000 a year, an still no effective means are taken to check it.

Something like an adequate of what these losses mean is arrived at by considering what the half billion dollars thrown into the national ash heap last year would buy. It would pay for a fleet of fifty battleships, everyone equal to the "Dreadnought." It would support the United States army for the next seven years. It would pay for one-half of our imports and wipe out half the national debt. It would cover the cost of 50 skyscrapers.

A practical suggestion as to one way of reducing the fire loss is being pressed upon the attention of American municipalities by the International Society of Building Commissioners and Inspectors. The argument of this organization is that fire losses, and costly fire departments are due mainly to dangerous buildings, and that these buildings should, therefore, pay higher taxes than are assessed on fireproof structures. The society, with headquarters at Washington, and others similar to it are carrying on an active campaign of education in favor of fireproof building.

That absolutely fireproof construction is a possibility has been shown by the National Board of Fire Underwriters. Walls of vitrified brick and floors, partitions, roof and stairway of hollow burnt brick are the main features of the building that cannot burn down.

The most vehement of the national resolves that are in order at this season should be one that will mark the end of the era of flimsy, dangerous building and the beginning of the fireproof age.

ALEXANDRIA NOTES.

Alexandria, O., Jan. 11.—The Congregationalists are making extensive repairs on their church. They expect to have the work completed so that the regular services of the church will be held in their own house next Sabbath.

Gurney Hill is still at the hospital in Columbus. The doctor says he is getting along nicely but will very likely lose the sight of one eye.

Miss Celia Hammond who has had quite a long siege of typhoid fever is much better. She has been confined to her bed for six weeks now, but she is gaining slowly.

Rev. A. H. Norcross will preach next Sunday at 10 o'clock in the Alexandria M. E. church.

Don't think that piles can't be cured. Thousands of obstinate cases have been cured by Doan's Ointment. 50 cents at any drug store.

January Clearance Sale

THE BOLDEST PRICES EVER KNOWN

The sale of sales—a sale with a reason and an object, and a result. Here's a sale with a method and a meaning. Here's an annual sale—a sale believed in, anticipated and awaited. Here's a sale greater than all our previous January sales; a sale you must not miss.

The reason is clearance, and the object is clearance, and the result is clearance. The method is price-cutting, and the meaning—to you—is savings—to move surpluses—to turn goods into cash.

This is clearance—and how do we do it? Simple, very simple. Just by applying the old, old method—price-reducing in a big hearted, generous manner. By disregarding profits and by even overlooking losses. By giving bargains better and greater than at any other time or by any other store.

Every department is represented in this upheaval of values and downfall of prices. Nearly everything in the sale bereft of profit and prices for YOUR benefit.

Saturday morning at 7:30 o'clock, this sale begins—it will open with a rush. Don't miss the first day.
